Greetings Sorors,

Alpha Kappa Alpha makes history once again! At the 92nd North Atlantic Regional Conference, we learned that the For Members Only Federal Credit Union has launched. It's official! We created the first Black woman-owned, sorority-based digital credit union in the nation.

During Women's History Month, you will have an opportunity to open a share account in this history-making financial institution with a minimum deposit of $50. Additional financial products will continue to roll out through the remainder of the year. Let's make a conscious effort to circulate our dollars in the Black community.

Delta Rho Omega also left its mark on "The City of Brotherly Love and Sisterly AKAfection." We are the Best of the Best with membership, and our collaboration with the undergraduates of Alpha Mu chapter took top marks in the region. I thank you for all the ways you showed up in Philadelphia and let our sorors know that "Brooklyn's in the house!"

I hope that like me, you are reenergized by our time together and ready to SOAR to even greater heights of service and sisterhood. Please save the date, Thursday April 6 and join me at the Brooklyn Museum for a 75th Anniversary Program that will highlight the L.E.G.A.C.Y. of our beloved chapter. This is an event that you will not want to miss!

Sisterly,

Soror Monique

First Anti-Basileus' Message

Greetings Sorors!

I extend warm greetings to you all and hope this letter finds you well. As members of Alpha Kappa Alpha, we have dedicated ourselves to being "Supreme in Service to all mankind" for over 115 years, bringing hope and change to the communities we serve. Delta Rho Omega Chapter has been steadfast in fulfilling its role in this mission through substantive and intentional programming. Our presence has made Brooklyn a better place.

As we embark on the next 75 years, I urge all of you to remember the ideals that drew you to Alpha Kappa Alpha. The world has faced significant challenges in recent years, and now more than ever, we need to work together to make our world a more just and livable place for everyone. Our sisterhood is a source of immeasurable strength, and I believe that together we can achieve anything we set our minds to.

If you attended our North Atlantic Regional Conference, you know that we have some ambitious goals ahead of us. From enhancing our environment to building our economic wealth, there is much to do as we move forward. I encourage you to familiarize yourself with our new initiatives if you haven't already done so, and to consider joining at least one program committee. If you're unsure, please stay tuned for our program fair next month, where you'll have the opportunity to learn about our program committees and their work.

In the coming months, we will be busy with many activities in our chapter, and we need your support. This month, our Supporting Women Entrepreneurs Committee celebrated Black founders, and if you are a business owner in the chapter, please submit your information for our directory before the month is over. Additionally, we invite you to join us on April 1st as we help with the Brooklyn Prom Project, which has been a partner of ours for over 10 years.

I am grateful for your sisterhood and for all of your service to Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.®. I am thrilled to see what we will continue to achieve together.

With Sisterly Love and Affection,
Sabrina Gates

Soror Spotlight

Diamond Soror Myra Mundy Briggs
GAMMA THETA - 1948

Congratulations to Delta Rho Omega's Diamond Soror Myra! She was initiated into the Sorority in 1948, by way of Gamma Theta Chapter at Hampton Institute, now known as Hampton University. Please enjoy reading about this warm-hearted, churchgoing, mother and grandmother. Let's celebrate Soror Myra's monumental achievement of 75 years of service to Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated®.

Submitted by Soror Kimberly Vick

Q: To what are you most looking forward as a Diamond Soror?

A: Just being thankful that I am still able to enjoy being here, and able to socialize with my Sorors, family, and friends. I have many blessings. As I look back over my life, I'm grateful to God that I became an AKA.

Q: Looking back, do you have one memorable AKA moment that stands out the most?

A: If I had to pick one, I guess I would choose when I was initiated. I had been supported financially by my sister, who was two years older than I. By this time, she was working on her first job when the ladies of Gamma Theta chapter approached me and invited me to join Alpha Kappa Alpha. I didn't feel that my parents could afford the extra money, but my sister told me not to worry. When I was initiated, I thought, "Oh Goodness, my sister is wonderful. Now I'm going to have a whole lot of other sisters." I remember that thought because the sorors talked about sisterhood so much in those days.

Q: You were initiated at Gamma Theta Chapter in 1948, at Hampton Institute (University). Correct?

A: The first group, they had invited Alberta, my sister to join. I was the second group that they invited. The sorority was mostly going by grades back then. You had to have high grades. My brother, sister, and I, we all had good grades. We were good students, active, and participated. But my sister had taken a loan from the school, and that disqualified her. She was gung ho and wanted to join AKA. She knew more about sororities than anyone. I don't know where she got that information from because we didn't have them (sororities) at Hampton Institute before then. They were talking about it when I was a freshman, in 1946. I was the second line, but they had the first line in 1947. In 1948, I was a junior and my sister had graduated.

Q: How were you first introduced to Delta Rho Omega? And how has Delta Rho Omega impacted your life?

A: When I graduated from Hampton, I stayed in Atlantic City for the summer and then I came to Brooklyn, New York. I went Janes Methodist Church where I met Sorors Emma St. Bernard and Ruby Black. I didn't join right away. We had mutual friends, and for many years I was interested, and I supported the fundraisers often and went to the “big dance” they had each year. Also, I was a member of the Hampton Alumni Club. So Soror Sonja Davis was ringing my doorbell all the time because she was from Hampton Institute (University) and she kept me abreast of what was going on. And that’s how I got interested in Delta Rho Omega.

On the Hampton Institute Library steps, 1948
– Myra Mundy

Q: If you had to do it again would you be more active in AKA, less active, or about the same?

A: I would’ve kept it about the same because I can’t change the past. But ... If I had to choose between less or more, I would’ve chosen to do much more in AKA.

Q: Which committee or which position have you enjoyed the most in the sorority?

A: When Soror Sonja Davis was Basileus and I was parliamentarian, I learned a lot and performed many tasks. I remember that you were on the committee and used to come over to my house for meetings. At about 11p.m., I would have to start pushing you and the rest of our Sorors out.

Q: In the chapter's history book, you're quoted as saying “It is my hope...that with God’s help, we can keep foremost in our thoughts the sisterly love and service emphases of our beloved Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated.” Can you expand on that?

A: What I think I’m trying to say is that many organizations get off track. We (DRO/AKA) are not a social club, and we have to demonstrate that to the general public. That it is a community service organization and that should come first. This should be apparent to the community we serve.

Q: Soror Myra, which Founder do you most admire?

A: When I was ten years old and living in Stanley Holmes Village Houses in Atlantic City, New Jersey, my mother sent me to Founder Beulah Elizabeth Burke’s house for sewing lessons. I was the only child in this sewing group. Ms. Burke helped me sew my first dress. I was so proud of it, and when I wore it to school, my teacher said, “What a beautiful dress.” She was amazed when I told her I’d sewn it myself. It wasn’t until twenty years ago when I attended NARC in Atlantic City that I made the connection that my Ms. Burke was the same Beulah Elizabeth Burke who was one of the founders of my beloved sorority.

Thank you Diamond Soror Myra for sharing your story, for being a great example of an Alpha Kappa Alpha woman, for your contributions to Delta Rho Omega, and for paving the way for future sorors. Congratulations on 75 years of sisterhood and service in Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated®.
